SUPPORTING STATEMENT
SOUTHWEST REGION GEAR IDENTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS
OMB CONTROL NO. 0648-0360

A. JUSTIFICATION

1. Explain the circumstances that make the collection of information necessary.

The success of fisheries management programs depends significantly on regulatory compliance. Requirements that fishing gear be marked are essential to facilitate enforcement. The ability to link fishing or other activity to the vessel owner or operator is crucial to enforcement of the regulations issued under the authority of the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act (M-S Act). The marking of fishing gear is also valuable in actions concerning damage, loss, and civil proceedings.

2. Explain how, by whom, how frequently, and for what purpose the information will be used.

Under 50 CFR 660.24, the operator of each permitted pelagic longline vessel in the western Pacific fishery management area must ensure that the official number of the vessel is affixed to every longline buoy and float, including each buoy and float that is attached to a radar reflector, radio antenna, or flag marker, whether attached to a deployed buoy or possessed on board the vessel. Operators of lobster vessels registered to fish in permit area 1 (Northwestern Hawaiian Islands) must ensure that the vessel's official number is marked legibly on all traps and floats maintained on board the vessel or in the water by that vessel (50 CFR 660.47).

The regulations further specify how the gear is to be marked, e.g., the location of the marking. Law enforcement personnel rely on this information to assure compliance with fisheries management regulations. Gear that is not properly identified is considered unclaimed or abandoned property that may be confiscated. The identifying number on fishing gear is used by the National Marine Fisheries Service and the U.S. Coast Guard, and other enforcement agencies in issuing gear violations, prosecutions, and other enforcement actions. Gear marking helps ensure that a vessel harvests fish only from its own longline/traps and that longline/traps are not illegally placed. Marked gear allows NMFS and the USCG to more readily enforce gear violations, thus allowing for more cost-effective enforcement. Cooperating fishermen also use the marking to report placement or occurrence of gear in unauthorized areas. Regulation-compliant fishermen ultimately benefit as unauthorized and illegal fishing is deterred and more burdensome regulations are avoided.

3. Describe whether, and to what extent, the collection of information involves the use of automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological techniques or other forms of information technology.

The requirement that fishing gear be marked with an identifying number does not lend itself to information collection technology.

4. Describe efforts to identify duplication.

There is no duplication with other collections of information.

5. If the collection of information involves small businesses or other small entities, describe the methods used to minimize burden.

All vessels in the western Pacific fisheries managed under the M-S Act are categorized as small businesses. The collection will not have a significant impact on small businesses, and no special modifications of the requirements were considered necessary to accommodate the needs of small businesses.

6. Describe the consequences to the Federal program or policy activities if the collection is not conducted or is conducted less frequently.

The NMFS and U.S. Coast Guard could not enforce the fisheries management measures if the collection is not conducted or is conducted less frequently.

7. Explain any special circumstances that require the collection to be conducted in a manner inconsistent with OMB guidelines.

No special circumstances require the collection to be conducted in a manner inconsistent with the OMB guidelines.

8. Provide a copy of the PRA Federal Register notice that solicited public comments on the information collection prior to this submission. Summarize the public comments received in response to that notice and describe the actions taken by the agency in response to those comments. Describe the efforts to consult with persons outside the agency to obtain their views on the availability of data, frequency of collection, the clarity of instructions and recordkeeping, disclosure, or reporting format (if any), and on the data elements to be recorded, disclosed, or reported.

A Federal Register Notice (copy attached) solicited public comments. None were received. Public comment was also solicited during the regulatory process.

9. Explain any decisions to provide payments or gifts to respondents, other than remuneration of contractors or grantees.

No payments or gifts to respondents are involved in this collection.

10. Describe any assurance of confidentiality provided to respondents and the basis for assurance in statute, regulation, or agency policy.

There is no assurance of confidentiality provided. This is public information.

11. Provide additional justification for any questions of a sensitive nature, such as sexual behavior and attitudes, religious beliefs, and other matters that are commonly considered private.

There are no sensitive questions.

12. Provide an estimate in hours of the burden of the collection of information.

Estimated burden to western Pacific pelagic longline vessels: 217 vessels x 120 floats per longline (average of four floats per mile) = 26,040 x 2 minutes/ 60 minutes = 868 hours.

Estimated burden to Northwestern Hawaiian Islands lobster vessels: 15 vessels x 1,104 traps/floats (average of 1,100 traps and 4 floats/string) = 16,560 x 2 minutes 60 minutes = 552 hours.

Summary Table

of Vessels	Gear per Vessel	Total Markings	Time Per Marking	Burden Hours
217	120	26,040	2 minutes	868
15	1,104	16,560	2 minutes	552
Totals
232		42,600		1,420

13. Provide an estimate of the total annual cost burden to the respondents or record-keepers resulting from the collection.

The cost to fishermen is minimal. Materials needed are paint and paintbrush, permanent ink applicator, and possibly a stencil. The average estimated time to paint/mark each longline float or lobster trap is 2 minutes. Total estimated cost for materials per vessel is about $100 per year.

Total estimated cost per vessel varies greatly with the type and amount of gear being used and lost. Given the adverse weather conditions and salt water, we expect most of the identification numbers will need to be repainted or repaired annually.

Total annual cost burden: 232 vessels x $100 = $23,200

14. Provide estimates of annualized cost to the Federal government.

Estimated annualized cost to Federal Government: $4,000

This is based on inspection activities conducted by NMFS enforcement which is equivalent to 5% time of one agent (GS-12 with COLA) while conducting other dockside enforcement duties.

15. Explain the reasons for any program changes or adjustments reported in Items 13 or 14 of the OMB 83-I.

No changes are reported.

16. For collections whose results will be published, outline the plans for tabulation and publication.

No results will be published.

17. If seeking approval to not display the expiration date for OMB approval of the information collection, explain the reasons why display would be inappropriate.

N/A.

18. Explain each exception to the certification statement identified in Item 19 of the OMB 83-I.

There are no exceptions.

This collection does not employ statistical methods.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:The Applicable Statute

Unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the statute are references to the provisions effective January 1, 1995, the effective date of the amendments made to the Tariff Act of 1930 (the Act) by the Uruguay Round Agreements Act. In addition, unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Department's regulations are to the current regulations, codified at 19 CFR part 351 (2000).

Background

On August 31, 2000, the Department of Commerce (the Department) received a request from SeAH Steel Corporation ("SeAH") for an administrative review of the antidumping duty order on oil country tubular goods from Korea. On October 2, 2000, the Department published a notice of initiation of this administrative review, covering the period of August 1, 1999 through July 31, 2000 (65 FR 58733).

Extension of Time Limits for Preliminary Results

Because of the complexities enumerated in the Memorandum from Barbara E. Tillman to Joseph A. Spetrini, Extension of Time Limit for the Preliminary Results of the Antidumping Duty Administrative Review of Oil Country Tubular Goods (OCTG) from Korea, dated April 18, 2001, it is not practical to complete this review within the time limits mandated by section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Act.

Therefore, in accordance with section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Act, the Department is extending the time limit for the preliminary results of review until August 31, 2001. The final results continue to be due 120 days after the publication of the preliminary results.

Dated: April 27, 2001.

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary, AD/CVD Enforcement Group III.
